Gleaner Agreement Guidelines

Please read this Agreement carefully. These rules are very important to the smooth and efficient operation of the organization. Noncompliance may result in suspension or termination of membership.

Consequences for breaking rules listed for Tualatin Valley Gleaners

- If a member chooses not to abide by the Gleaner rules, the following consequences will be enforced:
- If the rules are not followed, a written warning will be given to the individual.
- If the same type of rule is not followed for a second time, the member and their family will be asked to leave the gleaning program for one month.
- If the infraction occurs a third time, the member and their family will be asked to leave the gleaning program for one year.

If I choose not to abide by these rules, I understand the consequences that will follow.

If there are not enough volunteers to set up, assist with distribution, or clean up after distribution, food will not be distributed that day.

1. To ensure a fair and equitable distribution, all members must cooperate and share generously with their fellow Gleaners.

A. Each participating family is required to volunteer at least THREE (3) hours per Month.

B. Membership dues are $15.00 per month. Dues are used to cover operating costs and are expected to be paid in a timely manner. Limited number of scholarships are available, no family or individual will be turned away for the inability to pay.

2. The Tualatin Valley Gleaners and the Distribution Site will not tolerate theft of food, damaging or disrespecting of anyone or the areas occupied by the TVG and its members. This includes but is not limited to:

- Taking more than your fair share – above the limits set forth each week
- Stealing from the distribution site or fellow gleaners.
- NO Loitering before the distribution opens.
- Speaking in a disrespectful way to anyone! Harassment as defined as: “unwanted behavior which you find offensive or which makes you feel intimidated or humiliated. (<https://www.citizensadvice.org>)”
We are to be kind and courteous to all!
- Discrimination or “hate” speech, or action against anyone

3. Each family is required to carry and use an insulated cooler bag or cooler to receive frozen raw meat products. If the family does not have a cooler or cooler bag available - meat will NOT be distributed to them that particular week.

4. Please arrive no earlier than 1:45pm with the understanding that food will be distributed from 2:00—3:00pm.* Wheelchair and people with physical disabilities are to arrive by 2:00 pm.

You have to arrive before 3 pm on the day of distribution, or we will be unable to guarantee food for that day.

5. Parents must be responsible for their children at all times. Children are not able to glean items at distribution.

6. It is important for all members to respect the staff, volunteers and the facility. Any disrespectful behavior to the food distribution facility or members will result in being asked to leave immediately.

7. All members must be respectful of their fellow Gleaners and staff at the Distribution site or on picks. If a problem arises, please alert your Site Coordinator of the problem and find a peaceful way to resolve it. If the problem continues to persist, alert a staff member at the distribution site and follow the grievance process. You can email all inquiries to TVGLEANERS2@GMAIL.COM.

8. Smoking is allowed only in private vehicles and off of Crossroads Church property and cigarette butts must be disposed of appropriately.

9. Anyone suspected of being under the influence of drugs or alcohol will be asked to leave the premises immediately.

THESE RULES AND REGULATIONS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE AT ANYTIME.
